A Letter from the Rev. Mr. WHITEFIELD, at Georgia, to a Friend in London, wherein he vindicates his Asserting, That Archbishop Tillotson knew no more of Christianity than Mahomet.

Savannah, January 18. 1739,40.

My Dear Friend,

THO' that Saying of the Psalmist, Thou shalt answer for me, O Lord my God, has generally been a Rule for my Conduct, in respect to my Adversaries; yet when the Glory of God and the Welfare of his People are concern'd, I think it my Duty to maintain whatever I have asserted in any of my Discourses, either publick or private.---My affirming That Archbishop Tillotson knew no more of Christianity than Mahomet, has been look'd upon as one of the most unjustifiable Expressions that ever proceeded out of my Mouth: For this I am not only look'd upon as a greater Monster than ever by my Enemies, but also have been secretly despised and censured by some, who, otherwise, were my Friends. Indeed, I dare not say this Expression came originally from me: No; my dear and honoured Friend Mr. John Wesly, if I mistake not, first spoke it in a private Society, when he was expounding Part of St. Paul's Epistle to the Romans, and proving the Doctrine of Justification in the Sight of God, by Faith alone, in Contradistinction to good Works. It is in this particular (not to mention others) that I have and do now join Issue with my honour'd Friend, and upon the matureſt Deliberation, say again what I have often said before, That Archbishop Tillotson knew no more about true Christianity than Mahomet. --- Whatever high Opinion others might have of that great Man and his Works, I must confess he was never a Favourite of mine. My Sermon on the Eternity of Hell Torments was directly level'd against a Discourse of his on that Subject, before I left the University: And since I came from thence, my Dislike of him has been much encreas'd, because I have observ'd all natural Men generally speak well of Archbishop Tillotson's Works. --- And if we may judge of Men's Writings as well as themselves, by our Lord's Rule, we cannot but pronounce a Woe against those Books which natural Men generally speak well of. Did he teach the Truth as it is in Jesus, Thousands, who now admire, would throw aside his Discourses as waste Paper. --- But I would not lay all the Stress of my Objections here --- Out of his own Writings will I prove my Assertion. --- Any spiritual Man that reads them, may easily see that the Archbishop knew of no other than a bare historical Faith: And as to the Method of our Acceptance with God through Jesus Christ, and our Justification by Faith alone (which is the Doctrine of the Scripture and the Church of England) he certainly was as ignorant thereof as Mahomet himself. --- It would be endless to produce all the Passages out of his Sermons, that prove this; I shall only refer every impartial Reader to Vol. 2d. Serm. 52d. 53d. 54th. 55th. 56th. The Title of which runs thus --"On the Nature of Regeneration, "and its Necessity, in order to our Justification and "Salvation." So that according to this Title, His Grace intended to prove, that we must first be regenerated and sanctified, and then on Account of that Regeneration or Sanctification, that God will justify, i. e. acquit, accept and reward us. --- That I do not wrong the Archbishop, is plain from this Passage in Sermon 52d. page 325, Folio. "All that the Gospel requires as "necessary to these Purposes (i.e. to Man's Justification "and Salvation) is that we perform the Conditions of "the Gospel, that so we may be capable of being made "Partakers of the Blessings of it." And at the End of Sermon 56, which is the last on that Subject, and as the Summary of what he had before been delivering, He writes thus --- "You see then what it is that must "recommend us to the Favour of God. The real "Renovation of our Hearts and Lives after the Image "of him that created us, before ever we can hope to be "restored to the Grace and Favour of God, or to be "capable of the Reward of eternal Life: And what "could God have done more reasonable than to make "those very Things the Terms of our Salvation, "which are the necessary Causes and Means of it? "How could he have dealt more mercifully and "kindly with us, than to appoint that to be a Condition of our Happiness which is the only Qualification "that can make us capable of it?" Had St. Paul been alive and read this Passage, I am perswaded he would have pronounced an ANATHEMA against the Writer of it, as he did against the judaizing Teachers in the Church of Galatia. --- For what can be more contradictory to the Gospel of Jesus Christ: Here is not a Word mention'd about the all-sufficient, perfect and everlasting everlasting Righteousness and Death of Jesus Christ, as being the sole Cause and Condition of our being accepted by the Father; no, our Sanctification which is the Effect and not the Cause of the Righteousness of Christ being imputed to us, is here as elsewhere represented as the sole Cause of our Justification and Salvation --- So that our Righteousness which is but as filthy Rags, is here valued at so high a Price as to be made to purchase, or which is the same, made the Cause of our enjoying Christ, and Heaven, and eternal Happiness --- And what is this but Deism refined? Nay, is not this worse than Deism on some Accounts? Deists act consistently however with themselves, --- They deny Christ and therefore deny his Righteousness: The Archbishop pretends to own Christ, and yet puts our Righteousness in the Place of his. Many, I believe, do this and yet know it not --- These are to be pitied and taught better. --- But what can be said in Excuse for the Archbishop, who, if I mistake not, had his Education amongst those who did truly preach Christ, and yet afterwards, in this and numberless other Passages of his Works, preach'd Doctrines as contrary to the Articles to which he subscribed as Darkness is contrary to Light. --- And here I cannot but tax the Dissenters with acting very partially; for they cannot but know how contrary the Doctrine the Archbishop taught, is to the Truth of the Gospel; and yet, I fear, because the Archbishop was their Friend, and behaved with much Moderation towards them whilst he lived, therefore they have not spoken against his Tenets so explicitely as they ought. --- If I wrong them I ask them Pardon. ---As for my own Part, I know not how to give flattering Titles; nor would I have Respect to any Man's Person whatsoever when speaking in the Cause of God. ---On the contrary I would choose to begin with the strongest and most approved Adversary first: For to confute such a one, is like David's slaying the Goliah of the Philistines: And tho' whoever takes upon him to make the first Attack upon such an Adversary, must be censured as that Stripling was, and his Zeal cryed down as proceeding from the Pride and Naughtiness of his Heart, yet I am of Luther's Mind, Rather let Heaven itself fail, than one tittle of Truth perish. The Rev. Mr. Edwards of Cambridge, that noble Champion for the Doctrines of Grace, I have been told has treated the Archbishop with much more Severity. He was a Man of Letters, as well as Piety; he was a Presbyter of the Church of England---I refer you to him---You my Friend are more noble than to be carryed away with a fine Stile, easy Language and Accuracy of Expression, when the Root of the Matter is wanting.--Lay aside therefore all Prejudice.---Search the Scriptures, and read our Articles, and pray to God for Illumination, and you will find all conspiring to confirm the Truth of what is now sent, by

Your affectionate Friend and Servant,

GEORGE WHITEFIELD.

We have received a Letter from the Rev. Mr. Whitefield, to the Inhabitants of Maryland, Virginia, North and South Carolina, which will be inserted in our next.

LONDON, December 3.

THE Report of the Engagement between Admiral Haddock and three Spanish Men of War, is quite exploded, and look'd upon as an idle Fiction.

Jan. 26. Last Week died at Bath, Richard Marchant, one of the People call'd Quakers. He has left his Son above 1000 l. a Year, besides many Legacies to Friends all round that Counrry: He has often declar'd that he first set up with not above five Pounds, and that he sav'd by working as a Journeyman at his Trade, which was a Taylor: He was well known to many of the Gentry that used Bath, for discounting their Bills, &c.

We hear, that a Committee, appointed at a Meeting of the Portugal Merchants, will speedily wait on his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, to deliver to his Grace a Memorial, concerning some Grievances they have suffer'd from those who are appointed to protect them.

The Quakers Club at the Swan and Rummer in Bartholomew-lane, have, and do intend to continue, to distribute during this Cold Season four times a Week, Beef, Bread Soup, and Pease-Porridge, to about fifty Poor.

Newcastle, Jan. 12. We hear from Yarmouth that the Storm has been so impetuous there, that 14 Sail of Ships were drove upon their Shore, after their Crews had been reduced to the Point of Death by the Intensity of the Frost, and that seven of the said Ships were bulged and broke up on the Beach. The Spray of the Sea as it flew upon the Ropes was immediately converted into Ice, till the small Ropes became as thick as a Man's Waist; and also the Vessels were cased in Ice, while the poor Men (benum'd and incapable of making a Fire) waited their dismal Fate either from the Sea or the Frost; but by being drove ashore were all happily saved except two Boys, one of whom was froze to the Shrouds, and by the Shock of the Ship dropt into the Sea; the other died a little after being brought ashore.

By Letters from several Parts of this and the adjacent Counties we have Advice, that the greatest quantity of Snow has fallen in their Parts, the like of which has not been in the Memory of the oldest Person living; much greater than that in 1684, or 1715. Many By-Roads have been measured upwards of 14 Feet perpendicular, which has render'd all manner of Carriage impracticable; the Water Mills and their Receivers are all frozen, and so loaded with Ice, that it is impossible to disgorge them of their congealed Burthen; so that this Part of England has a near Resemblance of Norway, both for Cold, and quantity of Snow, according to the curious Winter-Piece delineated by the famous Hemskirk.

Newport, Rhode-Island, March 7.

We are inform'd by Capt. Rogers from Barbadoes, that Thomas Bell, who went under the Name of Gilbert Burnet, Son of Governor Burnet late of Boston, was pillor'd and whipp'd the latter end of December last in Barbadoes, and was sentenced to be branded with the Letter R on each Cheek, for his Misdemeanor and wicked Actions; but the Goodness and Clemency of his Excellency Governor Byng, releas'd him from that Part of his Punishment.

The General Assembly of this Colony have order'd the Government to be put immediately into the best Posture of Defence we are capable of; particularly that Fort George be repaired where it is wanted, and furnish'd with all sorts of Military Stores, and supply'd with 50 good able Men under the Command of the Hon. Col. Cranston. They have ordered 20 Soldiers to Block-Island for the Assistance of the Inhabitants there, and 6 Cannon there to be mounted as Field Pieces, and that a sufficient Quantity of warlike Stores be sent them. They have also ordered seven Watch and Ward Houses, and five Beacons to be erected in the usual Places throughout the Colony. They have likelikewiſe ordered a Sloop of 115 Tons to be built and equip'd after the beſt Manner with the utmoſt Expedition: She is to mount 12 Carriage and 2 Swivel Guns, and is deſign'd to guard our Coaſt, and to protect the Trade of this and the neighbouring Governments. She is to be launch'd the 15th of May next.

March 21. Capt. Eliſha Johnſon who came Paſſenger from Jamaica, by the way of Boſton, arrived here laſt Sabbath-Day, who informs, that Capt James Collins of this Port now at Jamaica, told him that Capt. Charles Hall had taken a Prize of 1000 Pieces of Eight for a Breakfaſt. He has met with ſuch extraordinary Succeſs, that he deſigns to ſpend the Summer in thoſe Seas: He is now double mann'd.

Capt. Johnſon alſo informs for certain, that two Spaniſh Privateers have taken the Iſland of Commanda near Jamaica, and plundered the Inhabitants, and have taken to the Value of 3000 l. from one Mr. Thomſon of ſaid Iſland.

Capt. Hall's Owners deſign to have his Statue cut out of a Block of Marble to ſtand upon a handſome Pedeſtal with each Foot upon a Spaniard's Neck.

Boſton, March 18. On Friday laſt the Hon. Houſe of Repreſentatives voted an Hundred and Six Thouſand Pounds for putting the Province in a good Poſture of Defence, and other neceſſary Charges of the Government.

Boſton, March 24. The following ſhort Acconnt of the taking of Porto Bello, was drawn up and ſent to this Town by a Midſhip-Man belonging to His Majeſty's Ship Stafford which was in the ſaid Action.

From on Board the Stafford Man of War lying in Port-Royal, Jamaica, February 2. 1739,40.

Nov. 22. PLying to Windward for the Harbour of Porto Bello, at 2 P. M. they began to fire from Iron Fort, at 3 ditto, the Hampton-Court, Commodore Brown began to engage Iron Fort, and then according to Line of Battle followed the Norwich, Worceſter and Burford; we diſcharged ſeveral Broadſides, landed Soldiers from all the Ships, and ſcaled their Walls, haul'd down their Colours, and hoiſted the Engliſh Union Flag, came to an Anchor in 15 Fathom of Water, with the ſmall Bower, received one Shot through the Side into the Coach, and had one Man wounded. At 8 P. M. a Flag of Truce came off. We were employed 14 Days in deſtroying their Forts.

The two laſt Twenty Gun Ships we took from the Spaniards in Porto Bello Harbour, and a Snow which is gone to England with a Packet; ſeveral ſmall Sloops we took, which we made Sale of in the ſaid Harbour.

Three Fire-ſhips, Succeſs, Elinor, and Cumberland.

Two Bombs, Terrible and Alderney.

It is further added by a very intelligent Gentlemen juſt arrived from Jamaica, that they put on ſhore there from the Fleet 56 Braſs Cannon which they took at Porto Bello; that two of them weigh'd Ninety one Hundred each (juſt about Nine Tons the Two) and were ſixteen Feet long.--That the famous Ned Low, formerly well known here for his Piracies on this Coaſt and in the Weſt Indies, was Gunner of one of the Spaniſh Forts, but finding his Countrymen like to prevail, took Leg and eſcaped into the Country.-- That the three Ships which formerly went againſt Leguira, were ordered by the Admiral thither again to fetch their Cables and Anchors, and that they were to have one of the Bomb ſhips, and another ſmall Man of War to aſſiſt them.-- That Admiral Vernon, after he had got Poſſeſſion of Porto Bello, ſent to the Vice-Roy of the Indies at Panama, to demand the Books and all the Effects of the South-Sea Company, with all the Money regiſtred there for the King of Spain, allowing him ſeventeen Days Time to ſend it to Porto Bello; aſſuring him, that if his Demand was not complied with, he would lay the Town in Aſhes; and, that the Vice Roy, after deliberating upon this unwelcome Meſſage, ſent the Books, and a great Quantity of Money upon ſeveral Mules, which preſerved the Town from Deſtruction.

New-York, March 31. On Thurſday Night laſt we had a violent Gale of Wind at Eaſt and South-Eaſt, which blew exceſſive hard 'till Friday Three a Clock in the Afternoon, by which the Tide was raiſed higher than has been known here in the Memory of Man; and as ſeveral Veſſels were expected we fear it has done much Damage.

Yeſterday we received the melancholly News, That the Johanna, Capt. Payton from Madeira, in 9 Weeks, was forced on Shore at 5 o'Clock on Friday Morning, on the South ſide of Long-Iſland near Hamſtead; ſhe bilged and parted the inſtant ſhe ſtruck; the Captain, Mate, two Sailors, and Mr. John Bayeux, jun. were loſt; two Men and a Boy, with great Difficulty, ſaved themſelves by ſwimming to Shore, who brought this Account. A Trunk with Letters for Merchants here was found on the Beach and brought hither, by which we have Advice that Capt. Tuckneſs ſail'd for this Place 13 Weeks ſince, and Capt. Vatar 11.

PHILADELPHIA.

We here from Bucks County, that on Sunday the 26th ult. Nicholas Hantwerk, a Palatine, and Patrick Mc'Quire an Iriſhman, being at a Tavern and drinking freely, a Difference aroſe between them, and they had a ſmal ſcuffle, but the Landlord interpoſing ſent them away; they travel'd about a Mile together, and had a freſh Engagement; but the Dutchman proving too hard for the other beat him cruelly about the Head and diſabled him, then ſtrangled him with his Handkerchief, ſo that he died. The Dutchman is ſince ſecured in the County Goal, in order to be brought to Juſtice.

Friday laſt we had a violent Storm, at Eaſt and South-Eaſt, which did a great deal of Damage to the Banks of Meadows on this River, and blew down many Trees, Fences, &c. in the Country. A Flat coming to Town with Wood, ſunk, and one Man was drowned.

We hear that Capt. Axon has taken two more ſmall Prizes, and ſent them into Curacoa.
